"From Africa" by Louise Nisbet is a joyous collection that took Louise back to her figurative, fine art roots. The elegant figures in 'Native Women' are simplified to create a strong outline, and the bold vibrancy of the garments really bring a rich and cheerful feel to the design. This is complemented by the earthy tones of 'Fired up' and 'African masks' and the lively, almost dancing patterns of 'clustered dots' and 'tribal squares' really bring a celebratory feel to this collection.

"Now and Zen Yoga Animals" is a fun new collection by Ashley Spires. The Yoga animals series started as a way for Ashley to marry her love of drawing, animals and yoga. Having trained as a yoga instructor, Ashley has a strong understanding of the practice, even if she spends most of her meditation time composing her next illustrations. She has found that the best yoga classes are the ones laced with laughter, and by drawing goofy animals practicing their postures, she hopes to bring a smile to yoga and animal enthusiasts alike.

"Sweet Dreams" by Miriam started as a design challenge with the topic "Paisley". While drawing the paisleys, the form somehow reminded her of curled up cats (she considered herself a catless cat person). So, she added the sleeping and purring beauties. Enjoy this purrrfect 20 piece collection.
